Group 12 Final Project Proposal

Group Members: Angelo Saez, Steven Vazquez, Zachary Scarpati, Matei Moldoveanu

Project Description: The purpose of this project is to create a website where writers can post any and all textual art pieces, as well as setup open-mic events. Other users are allowed to comment on and archive there favorite pieces. The website will display the top pieces for each week.

GitHub URL: https://github.com/seniorscooba/Web_Programming_Final_Project

Core Features:

- Website shall provide section for user to post text piece
- Post shall contain text, userId, username, Upvote userId List
- Website shall persist posts from the user
- Website shall allow users to upvote or un-upvote a post
- Website shall allow user to display favorite piece of the day (Most upvotes for the day)
- Website shall allow user to display most recent posts of the day
- Website shall allow user to create events
- Events shall contain location, time, optional banner image, attending participants

Extra Features:

- Analysis of posts (word frequency breakdown)
- Text to post (SMS text to URL allows automatic post)
- Implement search and filter for events location when upon user enter